CAMPUS EVENTS is a weekly bulletin for all summer students-----July 15, 1963
Published by the Division of University Extension of the University of Toronto.

THE PRESIDENT'S LECTURE SERIES - "Give me some music; music, moody food of us that trade in love"
Shakespeare, "Antony and Cleopatra"

"Music in Shakespearean Production". In this, the first of the series "Shakespeare and Music", Arnold Edinborough, well-known author and new editor of the magazine "Saturday Night", will be the lecturer, and his talk promises to be quite interesting to all those who have had any experience of viewing Shakespearean plays, or to those who plan to venture to Stratford for the first time this summer. B.A. and Type A lectures are cancelled Wednesday from 11:30 until 1:30 so that all summer students can attend at 12:00. You are asked not to eat in Convocation Hall.

HART HOUSE WEDNESDAY NIGHT #2: Were you at last week's "Hart House Wednesday Night"? Have you talked to someone who was there? If so, you will know that last week's party was a great success. With many people enjoying the dancing, showing off their bridge skill, watching movies, swimming, or listening to records, there were activities to interest everyone. But there's still room for more; a fourth for bridge is always welcome, and the dance floor could have held far more people. The films to be shown this week include a satirical look at tourists in Quebec, and examples of the works of Norman MacLaren, the renowned cartoonist at the National Film Board, including his Academy Award winning film, "Neighbours". A special feature of this Wednesday Night's activities will be an appearance of the Summer School Choir, for their initial performance after several weeks' rehearsal. This will take place at 9:45 in the Music Room.

Before the party starts, George and Mary Lewis will give their dancing lessons in the East Common Room at 8:15. The fee is $3.00 for three lessons. Brush up on old steps and learn some new ones!

MUSIC

Hart House: The Toronto Renaissance Quintet, with Lute will play the Hart House Viols in the Music Room on Thursday, July 18th, at 12:30 p.m. The six players involved have only recently begun performing publicly after having practised over a long period in Hart House. The polyphonic music to be performed was written in the 16th and 17th centuries and would be of the style very familiar to Shakespeare. The viols themselves date from the 17th century, one being made by Carlo Bergonzi, a famous pupil of Stradivarius. Come and enjoy what will be an excellent concert!

Edward Johnson Building: Tonight, Professor Myron Schaeffer of the Electronics Studio of the Faculty of Music, will give a lecture-concert on Music in the Machine Age. Dr. Schaeffer is in the forefront of the electronic school of music, and in addition to explanatory remarks and tape recording, there will also be shown three films which employ this music background.

Tomorrow, July 16th, Mr. Glem Gould will give the third of the MacMillan Lectures. His theme will be "Music in the Soviet Union".

On July 18th, Walter Buszinski will play a recital of piano music by Chopin and contemporary composers.

All events are free, but tickets, available in the Information Centre, are required for Mr. Gould's Lecture.

ART

Hart House Art Gallery: Nineteen Women Members of the Society of Painters in Water-colours have sent paintings to be exhibited in the Hart House Art Gallery from July 12th, to August 9th. Several of the women represented have received recognition abroad, particularly at recent International Salons in France.

AND A FILM

This Tuesday at 12:00 noon in the East Common Room, and this Friday and next Monday at O.C.E. at 12:00, .. the film "Four Teachers" will be shown. An interesting "Comparisons" film by the National Film Board, this movie explores the different problems of teachers in four lands, and how in their particular situations, these teachers adapt teaching methods to suit their land. An interesting insight into the profession here and abroad.

STRATFORD TICKETS: Tickets for the Tely Tours to the Festival may still be arranged through the Information Centre. Tomorrow - The Mikado or Cyrano de Bergerac, and next week, The Comedy of Errors or The Mikado.

SEE A TELEVISION SHOW PRODUCED! Have you ever been in a studio while a T.V. show is actually being telecast? Free tickets are available for the C.B.C. show, "Front and Centre" for July 31st, August 3rd, 7th, and 14th. If you are interested, see Mrs. Deane in the Information Centre.

WOULD YOU GIVE HALF AN HOUR TO SAVE A LIFE? On July 23rd the Red Cross is going to hold a blood donor's clinic on campus. While there is no need to stress the importance of blood donations, the demand now in the summer is particularly urgent for while many potential donors have left the city on vacation, the demand for blood has risen because of summer-time accidents. It's simple and painless to give, and the satisfaction from fulfilling your duty far outweighs any discomfort.

THURSDAY - TOUR! Interested in research and development of new engineering processes and techniques? Join the tour of the Civil and Mechanical Engineering Buildings tomorrow afternoon. If you are interested in a behind-the-scenes view of these two very important departments, sign a list posted in the Information Centre or at O.C.E. The group forms at 2:00 (promptly) in the Staff Common Room (on the first floor) in the North wing of the Galbraith Building.

O.C.E. SOCIAL ACTIVITIES CARDS: If you are an O.C.E. student inclined to take part in any or all of the summer activities which take place on the campus, the only requirement is that you have a Social Activities Card. These cards are available at no charge at the Information Centre in Hart House, and they allow you into all social functions and athletic facilities of the University. They will also be given out today after 3:00 p.m. in the main foyer of O.C.E.

SWIMMING IN THE O.C.E. POOL: After many, many requests the pool at O.C.E. has been opened for the use of summer students taking courses there or at Harbord. The hours are from 12:00 - 1:00 and 3:00 - 4:30 daily. In the afternoon shift, instruction will be available for those who wish it.
